

Game Day Report – Tuesday 2nd June 2026

Hi All, Tuesday we played our medal round in what was threatening to be a bad weather day with wind all day and potential rain in the afternoon. Fortunately, we all managed to get into the clubhouse before the forecast rain arrived. Scores reflected the conditions with only 7 teams scoring better than a par 71. There were 59 players, dropping from the 66 that were booked on the Monday afternoon and we welcomed one new player in Darryl Out, we hope you enjoyed your day playing in the group that finished second.

Sponsor for the day was TRAVEL MANAGERS

NEXT WEEK

As the shortest day is only a couple weeks away where possible we will opt to format competitions which will allow us to complete our rounds as quickly as possible

We will also look to start as early as possible once all registered players are checked in each week, so please arrive in good time to help us get away if possible before 12.00 midday

Tuesday 9 June playing on the NORTH course - off White tees - FORMBROSE (All drive, you must play a different team members drive for the second shot, then the team chooses one ball. and all play from this position (AMBROSE format) The team score is recorded on the card)

FOLLOWING WEEK

Tuesday 16 June playing Stableford FOOTY round SWANS tees (RED & WHITE) on the CHAMPS course with team & Individual scores

OTHER MATTERS

LOST / MISPLACED CLUB

Julian Bicchierai handed in a Cleveland CG12 wedge (56 degrees) which somebody had placed in his bag by mistake. If you own this club, it is currently in John Tessier's possession; if not claimed before next Tuesday it will be handed in to the pro shop.

Enjoy your golfing week
